

Bethlehem Nursery
 Fax: 203-266- 7783
 E-mail: grafftoryou@aol.com

This list will be void after sept. 2004

Stock #	Cultivar	Description	Age	Size	Price
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Bergmans Gem'	A very dwarf vase shaped plant with dark green foliage. Grows 2" per year.		(D)	$15.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Holenka'	Flat top little plant with short needles and dark green foliage. New!		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Horstmann'	From the Horstmann nursery, a bun shaped little spruce with dark green short needles. 1.5" per year.		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Juwel'	Truely a little jewel suitable for rock gardens, troughs, or pot culture.		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Kenwith'	From Kenwith nursery in England a very slow growing plant conical in shape with light green needles.		(D)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Libo'	New from Holland a flat top neat spruce with dark short needles. Growth 1" to 2" per year.		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Linssen WB'	A WB from libo nursery in Holland Dark green in color. Great for pot culture or small garden .		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Minima Wells'	A real tight little ball of very da green needles. Excellent trough plant.		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Mt. Vernon'	An oldie and still in demand .very slow growing little bun. 10 years it will be 12" by 12" .		(M)	$15.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Murphy'	A neat growing little spruce from England very dark green and a real beauty. 10 years 18".		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Professor Langner'	This is a little jewel that is very and slow growing. It grows about 1" per year. Nice pot plant .		(M)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Raraflora Fluke'	A prostrate growing spruce that is very dark green and grows in an irregular prostrate form.		(P)	$18.00

Bethlehem Nursery
 Fax: 203-266- 7783
 E-mail: grafforyou@aol.com

This list will be void after sept. 2004

Stock #	Cultivar	Description	Age	Size	Price
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Reynolds'	Another introduction from England. A dwarf little plant a little more open than others. 2" annual growth		(D)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Skylands'	An cultivar that has been around for a while but is still in demand. It is light green with gold frosting and is a beauty when established .		(T)	$18.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Skylands Sdl. # 1'	Like Skylands only more miniature. Very slow growing.		(D)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Skylands Sdl. #2'	Also like Skylands # 1 only a little slower growing .		(D)	$20.00
1 year	Picea orientalis 'Tom Thumb'	A WB on picea Orientalis Skylands found in New Jersey by John Verkade. A golden little ball suitable for pot or trough garden. Understock must be left on for 2 or 3 years.		(M)	$25.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Wansdyke Broom'	Small little cushion with dark need with annual growth 2".		(D)	$20.00
New Graft	Picea orientalis 'Weeping Dwarf'	A very slow growing weeping spruce with dark green needles. 10 years will be 24" if staked .		(P)	$20.00